

Discover how you can dramatically improve your health in only 60 days by identifying and eliminating the underlying cause (s) of your condition.

A comprehensive test and tailor made treatment program can put an end to the ‘trial and error’ process of seeking a solution to your condition and will help you to achieve a fast and effective recovery.

You may have spent time, sometimes even years, searching for the answers to your health problem, and have failed to discover a solution that can really help the situation.

You may even have been lead to believe that there is nothing that can be done, except to live with the problem and keep taking the medication.

Our clients tell us that they have tried many different options in an attempt to resolve their health problems. They often report limited success, even when they have spent lots of time and money in the process.

No matter what your circumstances, a Bionetics Test, report and Personal Health Program can help you resolve your health problem and put an end to:

(1) your continual search for a solution , (2) using more and more medications just to maintain the status quo and (3) spending lots of money with little or no success.

In fact thousands of people have already done just that. The bionetics test has helped pinpoint the real underlying causes of the problem (often unique to that persons body), and detailed how they can deal with the issues and help to improve their health.

The Bionetics Test and Personal Health Programs were initially developed as a result of interest received from the Practitioner and Therapist sector. Healthcare professionals were becoming frustrated at the cost and time implications of sending their client’s blood, stool, urine and saliva samples all over the world to be tested.

Often the results that they received were sketchy and inconclusive. The practitioner was left to deduce whether or not the findings had indicated the real causes of their client’s conditions.

Practitioners were looking for a test that not only indicated the presence of toxic or pathogenic influences ,but which also confirmed that the factors discovered were the real underlying cause of the patients problem. The test needed a feedback mechanism that would also measure the body’s response to each of the factors found. Each individual has a unique genetic makeup and may react differently to a specific factor.

Bionetics worked with a German company to develop a method of testing that would provide the information required. A very sophisticated electronic machine was developed. This is able to measure the energetic information emitted from cells in the root of human hair. This energetic feedback is interpreted by the system to indicate your body’s response to each of the factors found that could be contributing to your health problem. The same feedback mechanism is used to measure your body's response to the nutritional and herbal remedies available, in order to identify the specific combination that can best help your body to eliminate the problem factors and rebuild your good health.

This revolutionary approach to testing provides a unique insight into the negative factors impacting on your health at a very deep cellular level, and can help get right to the heart of the problem, with a specifically targeted health program.

After several years and thousands of tests we still never cease to be amazed by how well our clients respond to their personal health programs and delight in hearing their success stories.

Toxins – identifies if toxins are causing you a problem and if so which ones and what you can do to avoid and eliminate them. By removing the toxic burden from your system you will allow your body to function normally and improve your health.

Pathogens – identifies pathogens (Bacteria, fungus, parasites and viruses) that are weakening your immune system and indicates how you can get rid of them. This will strengthen your immune system and boost your body's ability to defend itself.

Nutritional Deficiencies – Finds out if your body is deficient in certain nutrients and describes which foods you can eat and products you can take to put things right and boost your health.

Food Intolerance – measures the body's reaction to 115 foods and ingredients to ascertain if you may have become intolerant to them. This knowledge helps you to avoid problem foods and the stress that they can cause your body, which in turn will help speed your recovery to good health.
